

Agenda of the Policy Seminar & Final Conference

Monday, February 11, 2019 Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation Av. de Berna, 45A, 1067-001 Lisbon, Portugal
09:30	Arrival and Registration
10:00	Greetings and Opening	Natália Alves & Marcelo Parreira do Amaral Prof. Dr. Luis Miguel Carvalho, Dean IE-UL Cristina Marcuzzo, Representative of the European Commission
10.30	Keynote: How much long life is there in lifelong learning?	Prof. Dr. António Nóvoa, University of Lisbon
11:30	Coffee break
12.00	Introduction into the YOUNG_ADULLLT project, objectives and design	Marcelo Parreira do Amaral & Jozef Zelinka
13:00	Lunch
14:00	The meaning of lifelong learning in young adults' life courses. The extension of youth, lifelong learning, and vulnerability	Siyka Kovacheva & Xavier Rambla Vitor Ferreira, University of Lisbon Alexandra Ioannidou, Leibniz Centre for Lifelong Learning Fabio Massimo Lo Verde, Università degli Studi di Palermo
15:00	Lifelong learning policies tackling vulnerability in the Europe's regions	Yuri Kazepov & Michele Schweisfurth Fátima Antunes, University of Minho Pepka Boyadjieva, Institute for the Study of Societies and Knowledge at the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences José Manuel Castro, University of Porto
16:00	Coffee Break
16:30	Coordinated Policy-Making in LLL? Dilemmas of articulation and fragmentation at the regional level	Mauro Palumbo & Marcelo Parreira do Amaral Margarida Marques, Member of the Portuguese Parliament Ana Cláudia Valente, ANQEP (Agência para a Qualificação e Ensino Profissional) Jim Gallacher, Glasgow Caledonian University Paul Zealey, Skills Development Scotland
17:30	Departure: Cultural Act – Tuna Acadêmica do Instituto de Educação	